

The Derawan Islands (Indonesian: Kepulauan Derawan) are in the province of East Kalimantan in Indonesia. They include Derawan, Sangalaki, Kakaban, Maratua, Panjang, and Samama Island and submerged reefs and islets. They are located in the Sulawesi Sea, on the coastal shelf of East Kalimantan (2°17'N - 118°13'E). The islands are part of the Berau Regency.

---

Length : 3 Days 2 Nights

Price : Rp. 2.750.000,00

DAY 1

TARAKAN - DERAWAN

09.00 - 09.30 Meeting Point at PelabuhanTengkayu 1

09.30 - 12.30 Departure to Derawan Island

12.00 - 13.00 Arrive and go to home stay to take a rest or walk around the village ( free )

18.00 - 20.00 Dinner

20.00 - —.— Free time

DAY 2

07.00 - 08.00 Breakfast

09.00 - 16.00 Go to 1. Maratua island ( Snorkling and take foto )

2. H.Mangkuk cave

3. Kakaban ( Swimming with jelly fish )

Then, Lunch at Kakaban Island and last go to sangalaki ( turtle conservation )

15.00 - 16.00 Go back to Derawan Island

16.00 - 20.00 Go back to homestay and dinner together

20.00 - ~ Free Time

DAY 3

07.00 - 08.00 Breakfast

09.00 - 12.00 Going to Tarakan Island and visit gusung

12.00 - ~ End Trip

Include:

1. Transportation with Speed Boat from Tarakan to Derawan (return)
2. Sea travel insurance for all passenger
3. Reza Homestay (water cottage, Air Conditioner, strategic location, clean and comfort)
4. 5 times meal
5. Mineral water o speed boat Tarakan to Derawan ( return )
6. Local Guide
7. Snorkling tools
8. Under water documentation
9. Entrance fee to Kakaban, Maratua, and Sangalaki

Exclude :

- Homestay Upgrade
- Personal spending for on the island that are not included in the itinerary